HOW TO MAKE GOOD BREAD.
Free Exhibition at the Store of Judge & Co., Taylor.

Miss Young, of Boston, who has been so successfully showing the merits of the celebrated Gold Medal and Superlative flour of the Washburn-Crosby Co. at the Scranton Club Store, will demonstrate to all wishing to become experts, how utterly useless it is to waste materials and ruin the temper as well as the digestion, by making and using poor bread.

Go to the store of Judge & Co., and see how simple a matter it is to grace the table with beautiful bread and cake.

AT THE FIRST CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Prochet, of Rome, Preaches to Large and Interested Audiences.

ONE OBJECT OF HIS VISIT HERE

He Seeks Aid for the Promulgation of the Waidenses Cause in Italy—His Statement of the Progress of That Religious Movement—The Amount of Money Received to Aid the Work is Not Sufficient.

Large and interested audiences heard Rev. Canon M. Prochet, D. D., of Rome, preach yesterday morning and evening at the First Presbyterian church. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon he addressed his countrymen in the native tongue in the lecture room of the church. In the evening the 380-odd Presbyterian church congregation was present and united with the First congregation.

Rev. Dr. Prochet is a man of magnetic presence, well endowed with the gift of oratory and is generally known as a representative of the Waidenses cause in Italy. It would not be inferred from his almost faultless English that his only education in an English-speaking country was derived from a year's study at Belfast, Ireland. The king of Italy has titled him Knight Commander of the Order of the Crown, a degree above knighthood, which in England would entitle him to the appellation of "Sir."

Of the conditions attending the Waidenses in their relations with Italy, as mentioned by Dr. Prochet, the following facts appear:

The religious conditions of Italy are mistakenly supposed to be the same basically as with the French, Austrian, Spaniards or Portuguese, when the differences are many. One only need be mentioned to prove that the religious condition of the Italian in his native land is unique. Every Italian has to choose between his country and his religion, because the Pope is as much opposed to Italian unity now as 1870. The Italian cannot serve both as he understands them. To help them the Gospel must be brought to make them realize it is possible to be a Christian and a patriot at the same time.

NATIVE EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The Church of the Waidenses is the native evangelical church of Italy, and existed centuries before the Reformation. Its fruits are seen in the results of the emancipation of 1848, since which time they have attained full Italian citizenship, and former prejudices are disappearing. In Florence is a modern university with appointments in professorship and equipment which compare it favorably with the leading universities of Europe or America.

The Waidenses are the strongest body of Italian evangelists. Of 25,000 Italian speaking Protestants, 15,000 are of the Waidenses church, and of the latter 5,000 have been gained outside their native territory.

The Waidenses church applies to other churches because she has not the means to carry on the work herself.
The church does not ask money for work in the valleys; it is all for evan-gelizations. As many as 20,000 people live on an area equal to some of the ranches in the west.

THE CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED.

The statistical table shows contributions in the Waidenses cause 1888 and 1893 as follows: America, ($ 8), $3,361.50; Austria, $11.40; Denmark, $25.25; France, $104.65; Germany, $1,435.75; Holland, $248.15; England, $19,012.93; Ireland, $216.55; Italy, $7, $70.65; Scotland, $18,957.17; Sweden, $795.31; Switzerland, $4,288.91. These sums, less a $14,000 deficit which must be made up by the extension of missions.
The Waidenses synod immediately raised a subscription of $1,000 which corresponds to the $1,000,000 raised by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church during its sittings.

Thanks are returned to the American churches who, through Dr. Gay, showed their sympathy. The case is once more placed before them with the hope that their hearts may be inclined by him to whom gold and silver belong.

ELEMENTS OF SUCCESS.

Pastor Partridge's Evening Sermon Preceded by a Concert.

Preceding the sermon at the Penn Avenue Baptist church last evening the chorus of seventy-five voices recently organized gave a pleasing concert under the direction of J. T. Watkins. The chorus was assisted by the quartette of the church. The singing of all was unusually fine and was much appreciated by the large audience present.

The discourse of the pastor, Rev.
Warren G. Partridge, addressed to young people, was based on the text, "Whatever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men." The theme was "The Elements of True Success."

The first thing necessary, the speaker said, is a strong body, as great endurance is essential, genius being only an extraordinary capacity for labor.

A second condition of success is the highest development of the mental faculties, and a third, the fullest development of the moral and spiritual qualities. The discourse throughout bore evidence of thoughtful preparation and was listened to with marked attention.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

There was no service at the Second Presbyterian church last evening the congregation uniting with that of the First Presbyterian to hear the Rev. Dr. Prochet, of Italy.

Rev. M. D. Fuller last evening occupied the pulpit of the Elm Park church.

"Lessons from the Checkered Scenes of Life" was the subject of an interesting sermon delivered last evening at the Jacson Street Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Collins.

At the Providence Presbyterian church yesterday morning Rev. George E. Guild preached the "Some Simple Truths About Money."

The first anniversary service of the Ladies Aid Society of the Trinity Evangelical church, Little England, was held yesterday morning. The pastor, Rev. J.
G. Whitman, preached a special sermon to women, subject, "The Eminent Woman."

After which a report of the year's work of the Ladies Aid was given. Short talks and select singing followed.

HOSPITAL CONVALESCENTS.

Persons Who Will Be Discharged from Lackawanna Hospital.

Lawrence Sullivan, of Archbald, who was struck by a Delaware and Hudson passenger train while walking on the tracks a week ago will be discharged in a few days.

Richard Lee, of Connell's Patch, who fell from the swinging bridge at Duryea, sustained no serious injuries and will leave the hospital, probably, tomorrow.

Frank Seeley, who was brought from the county jail, where he is serving a sentence for forgery, has been treated for blood poisoning. The authorities will retake him to jail today.

MADAM BLAUVELT TO SING.

Will Assist at Organ Recital in Elm Park Church.

The doors will open at 7.30 Tuesday evening for the organ recital at Elm Park church at which the famous soprano, Madam Lillian Blauvelt, will sing. Alfred Wooley, tenor, and Richard Thomas, bass, will also be heard.

The patron's list at Powell's music store closes positively this evening, after which it will be impossible to get a reserved seat. A silver offering at the door is expected. It is expected that every musician and people of means will encourage art by becoming patrons. The programme arranged is:

Mr. Carter.

SUMMER HOME AT DALTON.

That Delightful Resort Will Be Opened Again About June 1—Good Work Done Last Year.

St. Luke's Episcopal church is one of the most important and powerful forces of good existing in the city of Scranton.
Its arms reach out in various directions, extending comfort, consolation and aid to many of the stricken poor.
But among its multifarious charities, perhaps none have been more noticeable than the opening last year of a summer home for the aged, principally aged ladies. A comfortable farm house, located in a beautiful spot on the hills near Dalton, was secured, and there during the heated season, more than half a hundred aged inhabitants of this city, invalids principally, whose condition would not permit them to enjoy such a luxury, were given a period of healthful rest and recreation in the country.

But while the home was under the management of St. Luke's church, yet the beneficiaries were of all denominations, and all classes of Christian people contributed to the support of the institution. The same St. Luke's derived no particular advantage from the project, except in the way of reward that comes in remembrance of good works—something for which all true churches labor. There is none of the selfishness of creed, color or race to send poor old folks to the country for a time, and so St. Luke's church will this year endeavor to repeat last year's experience on perhaps a larger scale. The same building may be reused, placed in charge of a matron, and made comfortable for the reception of as many as twenty or more ladies. The scheme is certainly most meritorious and should meet with the approbation of all who feel it a privilege to add a little to the comfort and cheer of the aged helpless.

The committee chairman having the project in charge is William J. Lally, who feels assured that success will crown their efforts this year. The home will probably be opened about June 1, and be kept open for three months at least. It will afford a rare opportunity for many of the sick and unfortunate old people residing in Scranton to spend the summer months in a place which will almost make them feel young and strong again. The cause is worthy and should meet with hearty support from the public in general.

The Men's guild of St. Luke's church will also run their free excursion for women and children again this year.
Last year's excursion was a grand success, over 1,000 persons participating in the enjoyment of the same.

DECKER MADE A CONFESSION.

Admitted That He Robbed the Store of S. L. Lee.

Early on the morning of April 23, the grocery store of S. L. Lee, on Albright avenue, was broken into and upward of $60 worth of goods stolen.
The show cases were rifled of their contents, including scissors, pocket knives, razors, chewing gum, cigars, tobacco, cigarettes and candy. Suspicion rested on Anthony and William Decker. A search warrant was obtained and a thorough search of the premises made, with the result that most of the stolen goods were found in a bed covered up with the covering.
One of the boys shammed sickness and slept on the floor, when the officers suspicion rested on Anthony and William Decker. A search warrant was ob-
a bed covered up with the covering.

The boys were arraigned before Alderman Bailey. An accomplice named Decker was also before the alderman, charged with the same crime. Decker broke down and admitted the theft and offered to pilot the officers to where the rest of the stolen goods were secreted.
He took the policemen to the cellar of the house in which he lived and dug up a box that was buried in the earthen floor. In it were razors, scissors, razor straps, pocket knives, etc.

He stated that in order to save his pals, who were innocent, he made the confession above mentioned. Decker, who was recently discharged from prison for stealing goods from the store of the Green Ridge Glass company, bears an unsavory reputation. He was held for trial. His comrades were discharged.

ONE HOUSEHOLD'S SORROW.

Death of Nellie Grace, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor.

Early on Saturday morning Nellie Grace, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, of Mulberry street, passed away.

The sudden death of this bright and interesting child was a severe shock not only to her parents, but also to many others who were charmed by the lovable traits of her character. Precious beyond her years, she was a continual delight to those with whom she came in contact. Mr. and Mrs.
Taylor have the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in this their sad bereavement.

ABOUT BODY BUILDING

Physical Instructor R. L. Weston Gives His Views on the Subject.

SYSTEM EMPLOYED IN Y. M. C. A.

It is Framed to Suit the Requirements of Each Person with a View to Giving the Body What Should Be its Natural Development—it Is Imperative That All Brain Workers Should Exercise.

The ancient Greeks gave the subject of physical culture very careful attention and were very strict in exacting from their youth a gymnastic training.
Even the girls were expected to be good gymnasts and young ladies were not admitted to marry unless they had undergone a certain physical training.
As a result the bodies of both male and female were well developed. Their minds were developed, but not at the expense of their bodies, as is very often the case now. Greek authorities believed that the mind could not possibly be healthy unless the body was also healthy; and it would be well for us if we would imitate them. It was compulsory for parents to give their children a course of physical training.

General physical exercise is the kind required for all boys and girls, and it is necessary that a systematic course should be pursued, and this can only be attained at a school of physical culture where the work of physical culture one of the specialties; any substitute for it has never given satisfactory results and never will unless taught by a specialist in this line.

The work carried on in the Young Men's Christian association has been with the approval of the medical mind of the country, and more good work has been done in that institution in the last ten years to provide proper exercise for young men at a fair price free from all demoralizing influences than was ever done in all the previous history by athletic clubs.

GYMNASIUM OF THE EAST.

About fifteen years ago it was necessary to pay as much as $25 or $30 yearly for a good physical culture equipment in which the beds to tumble on were stuffed with excelsior or straw; everything was of the heavy or fancy style of apparatus; the lightest weights were about ten pounds and the heaviest seventy-five pounds; clubs, accordingly.
The horizontal bar, ropes and lifting machines were among the features.
The arrangements for bathing were very poor. The work, in fact, was all laid out for the strong man, the acrobat, the boxer, the jumper or the horizontal bar performer; everything ran to specialties. The undeveloped man or boy did not have any chance whatsoever. Everybody seemed to want to outdo everybody else. Nobody seemed to use the gymnasium as a means to the end in giving every man and boy a building up of the weak parts first; that is, giving them the advantages of a regular course for some special portion of the body.

I believe in using light weights entirely in the beginning. They should be directed toward promoting the healthy activity of the circulatory organs and to correct any deformities.

The body should be washed as often as possible. I do not mean a tub bathe of ten minutes' duration, but just a cleansing one every day. I take two body baths on an average daily the year round, and I never have a cold of any kind. A shower or a needle bath will cleanse the system of all impurities in nature and will produce a skin that will feel like velvet.

MODERATION IN EXERCISE.

Exercise should be very moderate at first and should be directed to building up the weak parts first; then exercise should be taken to bring all the muscles into play. This will stimulate the action of the heart and lungs and will increase the circulation and respiration.
I believe the system of exercises conducted in the Young Men's Christian association is the best of any in the country. It is being used in the public schools of large cities and on board the United States training ship at Boston. Where the Swedish system was used and abolished the system of the Young Men's Christian association has taken its place.

Some friends might be given in reference to the work carried on at the Scranton Young Men's Christian association.

The gymnasium work has never been so popular as it is at present, for those who come for body-building exercises, and who are not connected with the association, are finding that there is no interference on the part of those who exercise; certain hours and days are set apart for the boys and they are not allowed in the gymnasium any other time.

The gymnasium has been of great benefit to business men. Very often we read of some splendid professional or business man dropping out of life through prostration; indeed, the number who succumbed to this growing malady has increased alarmingly of late, and the death rate of those who commit suicide is also on the increase.
Eminent medical men agree that this is due to the nervous forces continue to be pushed, the body breaks down and the symptoms of nervous prostration appear and men so affected die of exhaustion or Bright's disease. They would live to old age if physical strength were not squandered and vital forces wasted.

The best preventive against the growing malady of nervous prostration is judicious, habitual exercise. Constant and regular physical indulgence is necessary for all brain workers summer and winter—for the middle aged as well as the young.

Gladiators, the famous English statesman, in whom the hope of a nation depended, is alive to the value of physical exercise. By earnestness in his physical exercise he has built up a healthy body and keeps it in condition to resist disease.

Exercise aids digestion, improves physique, clears the mind and gives peace and assurance. The fundamental functions of the body are the functions of the heart and lungs; and, as the wellfare of the body depend largely upon these functions, it is well to use means to develop them, which can be done only by exercise. Exercise, carrying purge blood to the muscles and fortifying the nervous system.

One hour of earnest daily exercise is necessary for brain workers, for a lack of muscular activity entails a reduced activity of the heart which often proves fatal.

We do not believe in the cart-horse muscles which gives a person a stiff and ungainly walk, but we do believe in the muscular system being in a state of tension so that a person will always be active and in such a state of good feelings that, whatever comes, he is easily able to turn the tide.

THE SYSTEM EMPLOYED.

Upon entering the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian association for a systematic course of training, a chart is issued showing the measurements of the candidates including girth, chest, arms, legs, etc. The chart shows, also, what exercises are given to develop the weakest and smallest muscles first and uniform the system. After the candidate has undergone the prescribed course of training for a given length of time, measurements are again taken.
The results seem almost incredible except to those who know what a systematic and scientific course of physical training will do.

In conclusion I can only add what the scientific minds of the world proclaim: That many lives can be saved and man's condition improved and strengthened mentally and physically by the use of the latter requires.

R. L. WESTON.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

The success achieved by the new play, "In Old Kentucky," proves that there is just as good material at hand in our own country for the dramatist as there is abroad, and it also proves that American playgoers will support liberally any domestic play that possesses originality enough to merit their support. Any American play which aims to portray the old characters, customs and incidents peculiar to different parts of the country is worthy of consideration and support, and it is gratifying to note that "In Old Kentucky" has met with such substantial success. "In Old Kentucky" will be at the new Frothingham theater Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday matinee. The sale of seats is now open at Powell's.

DE WOLF HOPPER IS PANJANDRUM.

De Wolf Hopper will be at the Academy of Music Tuesday evening, May 3, in the gorgeous comic opera spectacle, "Panjandrum." Assisting him in its production will be Della Fox, Grace Golden, Marion Singer, Samuel Reed, Edmund Stanley and Alfred Klein, than whom there are no more clever comic opera people in the country.

CRYSTAL COMPANY'S BENEFIT.

Lincoln J. Carter's scenic melodrama, "The Fast Mail," will be given at the Academy of Music next Saturday evening as a benefit for the Crystal House company. It is one of the best melodramas now on the stage. The fact that it is to be produced as a benefit for the Crystal company insures for it a crowded house.

WONDERLAND'S ATTRACTIONS.

Manager Davis will stage "The Duchess," a superb drama, for the first time at Wonderland tonight. It will be repeated on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings each performance contending with the language force "An Up-Town Flat" which will be given by Willett and Thorne. Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings "The Valley Slave" will be produced.
It is a drama with which the average theatergoer is familiar and will be given in a manner befitting its great merit. With such attractions crowded houses should be the rule again this week at Wonderland.
